DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

101 OLD TESTAMENT SURVEY I An airplane view of the law and history recorded in the Old Testament. Designed to familiarize the student with the theme and content of each book (Genesis - Esther).

132 GOSPEL OF JOHN An outline and expositional study of Christ Jesus our Lord as recorded by John the Apostle. The course studies Christ as the Eternal Word of God, His saving sacrifice and His glorious resurrection.

212 DOCTRINE II A systematic study of the doctrine of man, sin, salvation, the Holy Spirit and angels. This course is designed to give a thorough grasp of these doctrines.

321 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION I The organization and administration of the Church examined by the perspectives of history, basic objectives, general organization, departmental organization and curriculum materials for the total Church program.

333 ROMANS An analytical study of Christian doctrine as presented by the apostle Paul. Emphasis is placed on applying its doctrinal content to our daily lifestyles.

436 JAMES This course is a detailed study of the Epistle of James. The historical background of the book and the message of this practical letter written by James will be developed.

503 BIBLE STUDY METHODS A course designed to teach the student how to independently study the Bible. Among the methods taught are the inductive, synthetic, analytical, topical and historical.

505 SPIRITUAL LIFE This course deals with the day-to-day, moment-by-moment life of a Christian. It is designed to enhance the believer's life in the world, resulting in mature spiritual growth and bringing glory to the Lord Jesus.

508 HEBREWS A painstaking study of the superiority of Christ Jesus our Lord and the Christian faith above religion. A verse by verse exposition is attempted and difficult questions are examined with proper Hermeneutics.

511 CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE & FAMILY This course examines the biblical perspectives of marriage in our present day society. Included in this examination are the guidelines necessary for building a solid family unit able to weather the attacks of our society.

519 PHILIPPIANS This course is a detailed study of the book of Philippians. The historical background and the message of this personal letter of Paul to the church at Philippi will be discovered.
