Who am I? Melissa Kruger says, “It’s a question we all ask ourselves at some point. We may focus our identity on our job performance, marital status, personality type, or social network, among other options. However, there’s a larger question to consider. Who does the Bible tell me I am in Christ? Our identity in Christ is a fixed anchor guiding us through the changing seasons and circumstances of our lives as women.”

The theme for the Conference is “Reclaiming Our True Identity.” Attendees will have the wonderful opportunity to rediscover the riches of who we are in Christ. It is our hope to dismantle some of the misconceptions we may have embraced regarding our identity and explore the truths around our identity as presented in God’s Word.

As the late Elisabeth Elliot stated, “The fact that I am a woman does not make me a different kind of Christian, but the fact that I am a Christian makes me a different kind of woman.”

Mrs. Athena Sholar will be the speaker for our two plenary sessions. Seminars will be led by Mrs. Beverly Chao Berrus, Ms. Shannon McCoy, and Mrs. Favy Montoya.

You can register in person at LABTS ($20), by mail ($20), or online. ($23). Please make every effort to attend. Also, share the information with your friends. See you at the conference!
